

Tells How to Stop a Bad Cough

Surprising results from this home-made syrup. Easily prepared and costs little.

If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with soreness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficulty breathing, or if your child wakes up during the night with a cough, or you want quick relief, just try this pleasant tasting home-made cough remedy. Any drug store can supply you with 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (3 cents worth). Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Thus prepared, you have a pint of really remarkable cough remedy—one that can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief at all times.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is noted for its speed in overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds. Its millions of enthusiastic users have made it famous the world over.

There are many worthless imitations of this noted mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

FAKE MARQUIS IS LONDON JAILBIRD

Rousselot Served Three Months for Fraud After Having Been Chased Out of Paris.

New York, Feb. 19.—Further episodes in the life of Edmond Rousselot, the bogus hallmarked nobleman, who posed in this city as the "Marquis" de Castillo, and was indicted three times Tuesday, have been learned.

Rousselot, who is locked in the Tombs in default of $15,000 bail, and who "stung" W. E. D. Stokes, owner of the Hotel Ansonia, for $500, was known during 1915 and 1916 in Paris and London as "the lady killer." In January of 1916 he was convicted of fraud in London and served three months in jail.

Was a French Count in London. Rousselot posed in London as a French count, and was admitted to the inner circles of high society. Previously the authorities had invited him to leave France on account of some alleged shady deals with women.

After Rousselot had served the sentence he was deported from England and arrived in this country in the spring of 1916, and became confidential representative of King Alfonso of Spain.

Soon afterward the British secret service in this country was notified of Rousselot's plans. He was trying to interest the French embassy in a munition contract when a stop was put to his activities along this line. In the meantime Rousselot had made the acquaintance of men prominent in the diplomatic service of England, France and Spain.

While a guest at the Waldorf-Astoria for a short time Rousselot was introduced to Miss Marjorie Palmer, who occupied a suite with her mother, Mrs. F. C. Miller, in the Hotel Seymour. Miss Palmer is reported to be very wealthy.

"I was with my daughter when we were introduced to this man," Mrs. Miller said when interviewed. "He was presented to us by Commander Arthur S. Blackwood, who is attached to the British consulate in this city. We were told that he was the king's messenger from Spain."

Denies They Were Engaged. "Is it true that your daughter became engaged to him?" Mrs. Miller was asked.

"Most positively and emphatically not," said Mrs. Miller. "My daughter would have asked my consent, which she never did. We have known the marquis for over a year and he frequently entertained my daughter and myself at dinner and he accompanied us to several social events."

"Was your acquaintance with Rousselot severed when you heard the rumor that he was engaged to marry Miss Marjorie Palmer, the actress?"

"Assuredly not, for he believed he was a real nobleman and the king's messenger up to the time of his arrest. Besides, Miss Palmer has been frequently reported engaged, and such report wouldn't carry much weight anyway."

Rousselot referred reporters to his counsel, Carl E. Whitney. Mr. Whitney said the time had not arrived for his client to make a statement.

Assistant United States District Attorney Axman said he hoped to bring Rousselot to trial in a short time, and that other sensations would come to light then. It is said that several actresses and society women will be subpoenaed to appear as witnesses, many of whom were charmed by the handsome young "marquis."

"I've been fooled by women before, but this is the first time that a man put anything over on me," Mr. Stokes is quoted as saying after he learned that Rousselot had "trimmed" him for $500.

CHARGES DENOUNCED AS UTTERLY FALSE

Senator McKellar Investigating Reason for New York World's Attack.

(Special to The News.) Washington, D. C., Feb. 19.—Describing the attack by the New York World on him as a "deliberate falsehood," Senator McKellar, or the senate military affairs committee, today declared he is investigating the reasons for the attack and will prepare an answer he will communicate with Secretary Baker in regard to the charge of the World that he has prosecuted the Council of National Defense and become chagrined because his constituents were not awarded army contracts.

SAVE YOUR HAIR AND BEAUTIFY IT WITH "DANDERINE"

Spend a few cents! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Hair gets beautiful, wavy and thick in few moments.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with healthy and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fashish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents; apply a little as directed, and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—(Adv.)

UKRAINIAN DELEGATES ARRESTED FOR TREASON

Bolshevik Government Orders Apprehension of Those Who Parleyed With Germany at Brest - Litovsk — Belated Dispatches From Petrograd Tell of Fighting at Numerous Points.

London, Feb. 19.—Further belated dispatches from Petrograd received today give additional details of recent happenings in Russia. An official news agency dispatch dated Feb. 12 announced the bolshevik authorities ordered all the members of the Ukrainian central rada and the Ukrainian delegates to the Brest-Litovsk conference arrested and tried for treason to the people. Some of those affected by this order have been arrested at Kiev, while others fled to Berdichev.

Another of the official agency dispatches reports Odessa assembling a military camp. Fierce fighting occurred there on three consecutive days, it is stated. The defeated Ukrainians are said to have occupied the railway station and fortified themselves. Renewed fighting of a desperate character then began in which the ships in the harbor joined, firing shells of large caliber. The victims, it is declared, numbered 400.

The same dispatch reports that several hours of fighting at Nikolayev, an important port northeast of Odessa, ended in the Ukrainians surrendering. At Brodinski the Poles, it is announced, have declared martial law and ordered the population to give up their arms. Fierce fighting occurred at Cloubov station, whence the population fled.

The bolshevik claim to have occupied Zverev and to have severely defeated the Ukrainians in the Don basin. The official agency announces that by order of the revolutionary committee the coal mines have been "given back to the workers."

A Reuter dispatch from Petrograd reports that the bolshevik revolutionary tribunal arrested M. Pantasi, chief of the Rumanian mission to the bolshevik lines, and three Rumanian military agents. The members of the Rumanian senate who were living in Odessa, attempted flight but were detained.

Confiscate Rumanian Goods. It is proposed by the revolutionaries to confiscate Rumanian property. Reuters correspondent also reports that a sleigh carrying the Italian ambassador was held up at midnight in Petrograd by armed bandits, who robbed the ambassador of his fur coat, his pocketbook and other valuables.

The department of official affairs, it is added, has recognized the extrajurisdiction of the foreign embassies and legations and prohibited searches being made in them.

A dispatch to the Times from Petrograd, under date of Feb. 15, quotes Trotsky as declaring in his report upon the ending of the negotiations at Brest-Litovsk that the German terms included the retention of Poland, Lithuania, Riga and Moon Island and indemnity of $60,000,000 pounds.

Typhus Is Spreading. The Daily News has a dispatch from Petrograd, dated Feb. 13, reporting typhus spreading in that city with 60 per cent. of the cases fatal.

The epidemic was attributed to starvation conditions and the return of soldiers whose clothing presumably carried the germs of infection.

TEN GERMAN PLANES BAGGED BY BRITISH

Six More Disabled During Aerial Activities Sunday. Many Bombs Dropped.

London, Feb. 19.—The attempted raid of German aviators last night was a failure. There were no casualties or damage in last night's air raid," says the official announcement.

London, Feb. 19.—Ten German airplanes were brought down and six more disabled by British airmen Sunday, according to an official statement on aerial activities issued last night. Hundreds of bombs have been dropped on various targets and Monday British aviators raided Treves and Thionville.

The statement reads: "There was fair weather Sunday and the incessant bombing, which had been in progress for thirty-six hours, continued. More than six tons of bombs were dropped on various targets and airdromes in the neighborhood of Tournai, Lille and Courtrai.

"Again there was severe air fighting, enemy scouts making determined, but unsuccessful, attacks against our bombing machines. Ten hostile machines were downed and six others were disabled. Three of our machines are missing. Sunday night there were further bombing raids on Confans. A ton of bombs was dropped on the railway. Several burst and a fire was started. All our machines returned safely."

"Today our bombing squadrons raided by daylight the barracks and railway station at Treves and the steel works and railway station at Thionville with excellent results. All the machines returned safely."

Gun Defense Effective. London, Feb. 19.—First reports from outlying parts of London say that the gun defense never was more effective than Monday night, when it prevented German aircraft raiders from reaching London.

The Germans were engaged hotly by the guns which maintained an incessant fire for forty minutes. Eventually the raiders made off toward the east coast.

Sixteen Killed. London, Feb. 18.—Hostile airplanes are attempting a raid against London again tonight, making the third raid in as many nights. No damage or casualties are yet reported.

An official statement issued at midnight says: "Hostile aircraft crossed the coast shortly after 9 o'clock tonight and proceeded toward London. None of the raiders penetrated the defense, and so far there has been no damage and no casualties."

The text of the official statement says: "The casualties caused by last night's air raid were: 'Killed, men, 13; women, 3; total, 16. 'Injured, men, 27; women, 10; total, 37."

One of the bombs dropped on London last night hit a hotel, killing six or eight persons who were in a street nearby watching the progress of the raid. No one in the hotel received worse injuries than a few scratches.

CHARGE HIGHWAY PILOT WITH SUSPICIOUS ACTS

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 19.—A man giving his name as Henry Hering is under arrest here at the instance of federal officials because of his alleged suspicious actions. Hering claims to have been employed as highway pilot for John Wamamaker, of Philadelphia.

According to federal authorities, he has been active in visiting various state buildings and property, inquiring about railroad lines entering Raleigh and seeking information about military affairs at State college here.

NEW EVIDENCE WILL BE GATHERED IN LAWSON CASE

(Special to The News.) Knoxville, Feb. 19.—Counsel for Homer Lawson, who was granted by Gov. Rye a respite from electrocution until March 22, states that new evidence will be gathered and submitted in an effort to get the governor to commute the doomed man's sentence.

COSSACKS' HETMAN COMMITS SUICIDE

Gen. Kaledines, Chief of Short-Lived Don Republic, Dies by Own Hand.

Petrograd (Friday), Feb. 15.—Gen. Kaledines, hetman of the Don Cossacks, committed suicide at Novo Tcherkask, headquarters of the Don Cossacks, during a session of the Novo Tcherkask government, which he attended.

The government decided to resign and transfer its power to the local workmen's and soldiers' council. After the decision, Gen. Kaledines went to an adjoining room and shot himself.

Gen. Nabaroff, who succeeded Gen. Kaledines as leader of the Don Cossacks, ordered the immediate mobilization and arming of all Cossacks to fight the bolshevik troops advancing toward Novo Tcherkask.

As leader of the Don Cossacks, Gen. Kaledines was opposed to the bolshevik and he was the leader of the counter-revolt against the bolshevik early last December. On Jan. 1 the republic of the Don Cossacks was declared with Gen. Kaledines as president and prime minister. It probably was the resignation of this government that led to his suicide.

In five weeks, during June and July, 1916, Russian troops under Gen. Kaledines captured 20,000 prisoners in an advance in Volynia. He was elected leader of the Don Cossacks in July, 1917.

An unconfirmed report that Gen. Kaledines was believed dead was received in Washington on Feb. 16 from the American consul at Tiflis.

CONDEMNED LAND TO SAVE THE TIMBER

(Special to The News.) Knoxville, Feb. 19.—Six hundred defendants in cases involving the condemnation of 12,000 acres of land in Carter county for the federal forest reserve are being notified by officials to appear in federal court at Greenville in March to show why the land should not be condemned. In December about 10,000 acres of land was condemned in Unicoi county for the same purpose. The sum of $3.50 an acre being allowed for it. The purpose of condemning the land is to prevent further removal of timber, as when timber is removed there is greater danger of damaging floods in the rivers whose tributaries are fed from the mountains of upper East Tennessee.

UKRAINIANS APPEAL TO GERMAN PEOPLE

Declare Petrograd Government "Told Untruth"—Seek Protection Central Powers.

Amsterdam, Feb. 19.—The Ukrainian delegation to the Brest-Litovsk conference has issued an appeal to the German people, according to a Berlin dispatch, protesting that Russian bolsheviks and hired bands of red guards from the north have united with deserters from the Russian army under the command of former general-darnes and are invading the Ukraine, destroying, burning and looting towns. The appeal declares that the Petrograd government told an untruth when it described this movement as a rising of the Ukrainian people and the central rada as a bourgeois rada.

"The real intention of the bolshevik," the appeal adds, "is to subjugate the Ukraine and send its grain stocks to the north. In this hard struggle we look around for help, firmly convinced that the peaceful and order-loving German people will not remain indifferent to our distress. The German army standing on the flank of our northern enemy, possesses the power to help us and by its intervention to protect the northern frontier against further invasion by the enemy. In this dark hour we know our voice will be heard."

NICHOLS PREFERS TO FIGHT FOR UNCLE SAM

Tillery's Slayer Expects to Get Sentence of From Two to Ten Years.

(Special to The News.)

Knoxville, Feb. 19.—Wesley Nichols, slayer of Patrolman Matt Tillery, here, prefers to fight for Uncle Sam rather than to go to the penitentiary for two years. Nichols is in jail here. He was arrested pending announcement of an opinion in his case by the supreme court.

"I suppose the supreme court has affirmed the opinion of the lower court which convicted me and fixed my sentence at from two to ten years," says Nichols. "I have just received notice from the local exemption board to appear before it on Friday for a physical examination. I understand that the army will not accept a man convicted of murder, but if they will take me I'll try to make a good soldier. I'll fight as long as there is anything left to fight. I had rather serve in the United States army than to serve a penitentiary sentence."

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

He is now also a recruiting officer to enlist the financial support of the youngsters. Let him be your children's adviser in the matter of thrift. Let him show them what it means to substitute interest-bearing Thrift Stamps for the penny saving bank. Let him be the medium to put your children into actual contact with their country's government.

The Thrift Stamp represents to the children what the Liberty Bond represents to adults. The penny embodies war power just as the dollar—for pennies make dollars. The Thrift Stamp idea is designed to reach those who think in terms of cents. The power of the penny is shown by the fact that the government hopes to raise two billions of dollars from the sale of these stamps.

Thrift Stamps make a reality of the children's patriotism by allowing them to aid the government with money for war purposes. A child's savings may be the means of shortening this war by days, and may mean the redemption of colossal waste.

Thrift Stamps cost 25 cents each. Books of sixteen, with a few cents added, are at any time exchangeable for certificates which will be worth $5.00 in 1923. These stamps are received as payment on Liberty Bonds. You may obtain them at any postoffice, your mail carrier and at most stores.
